

The Best Way to Practice Applying Makeup Around the Head Model

Regardless if you are a budding cosmetologist or need to learn to how you can how to apply makeup properly, a head model is a superb beginning point. head models supply you with a simple approach to practice fundamental makeup application. Employing a head model allows you to certainly make a few mistakes, start again or practice multiple looks in one application.

Ready The Head Model

Prep your head model(see Sources for suppliers) upon an alcohol-based wipe to clean the entire surface. Some practice head designs include a removable only cover for makeup application. For individuals who've one, utilize it your head model and connect it very much the same. Permit the surface dry completely.

Choose your type of makeup. If you want to use powder makeup, ensure foundation, eyeshadow and blush will be in powder form. If applying liquid or cream foundation, follow with cream-based blush making up. Apply foundation. Liquid or cream foundation needs to be applied getting a moist makeup sponge. Blend a thin layer over entire face. Let dry for just about any minute. If using powder or mineral foundation, dip and swirl your powder brush over powder and affect entire face, dusting lightly.

Apply eyeshadow. Your head model's eye lid will probably be thinner when compared to a human's lid, so utilize a small brush. Keeping application light, make use of a neutral base color (taupe, beige or champagne) from lid to brow bone. If using powder shadow, make use of a contour color. Utilize a much much deeper tone of the color, (brown, bronze or gold) and apply just inside the crease within the inner corner in the eye towards the advantage in the lashes. Clean the comb getting a tissue and blend.

Apply eye liner (marker tip is easiest for newbies). Employing a liquid liner, make use of a little difference immediately in the lash line to outer corner. Let dry. Once the line looks too harsh, lightly smudge getting a clear, dry brush or possibly your finger.

Apply blush. Powder blush needs to be applied getting a brush. Cream blush needs to be applied getting a clear, moist makeup sponge or fingertips. For cream blush, use three small dots. For powder, swirl brush in compact and tap to eliminate excess. Apply blush from cheekbone, sweeping towards the temple.

Apply lipstick or lipsticks. For lipstick application, utilize a lip brush. Dip the comb gently to the tube and affect lip, beginning inside the center and out. Dip again and completely outline the lips. If color is just too vibrant or overweight, blot getting a tissue or finger. For lipsticks, utilize the wand inside the tube. For pot gloss, utilize a clean lip brush. Make use of a thin layer, working outside in the lips in.

TIP

Remember, concentrating on a head model is totally different from concentrating on real skin. Your head model's skin is harder and less absorbent, so you'll need less product. You are practicing fundamental brush and application technique. When concentrating on an authentic face, you will notice more movement and pliability for the skin. Don't rest both hands or fingers anywhere that could be uncomfortable for just about any real person. Make use of the brow bone or cheekbone to steady your brush hands.

WARNING

Never use lip stain or mouth area stain around the head model. It could leave permanent color in your thoughts model. Repeated practice is important to boost technique. Do color experiments and advanced techniques in your thoughts model before you decide to feel completely comfortable, then practice on people you are buddies with.
